WECOMMEND SUCCESS,

And our business has been such a success since we have been among you that we are now in the store room of James Gillon, 3 doors below the Christian Church, where we have more room and better light and a larger stock of DRY GOODS, CLOTHING, BOOTS, SHOES, HATS, CAPS, CARPETS, RUGS, FLOOR OIL-CLOTH, &c. which we will continue to sell you cheaper than you can buy them anywhere in Eastern Ky. We appreciate the encouragement the good people of Bath Co. have given us in selling them goods here at home cheaper than they can buy them elsewhere. Why not buy your goods at home? and we mean to say that you must buy them at home, and from us at that. A reaction has set in, and read the following reaction prices, which we quote you for the NEXT TWO WEEKS.

I also learned that he raised noth ing but cotton, yet his land would produce almost anything. This seem ed strange in a land so fair and bountifully blest, with a soil rich enough to yield a Klondike of golden grain. It seemed that they would at least raise enough for home consumption, yet they had their corn, hay meat and most of their vegetables hipped to them from the North. I made some inquiries and soon learned the cause. The negro cultivates the land. He could take his share of grain and use it. But not so with cotton; he can not make use of it. so it must go into the hands of the planter. The negro has a piece of land allotted to him and he is "furnished." Every two weeks he goes to the store at the "big house" and gets so much meat, so much meal, so much flour, so much molasses, &c., according to the size of his family.
